

Final program

Wednesday, 3th :

17h00–19h00 : Session for young historians

20h00 : Registration at the hotel

Thursday, 4th :

08h30–09h00 : Conference : Anesthesia from the Greek heritage to the Arabic contribution. Alain Touwaide (USA)

09h00–11h00 : Session I: History of surgery in Muslim heritage: interaction with the past and the future

- Islamic influences on western surgery. Robrecht Van Hee (Belgium)
- The use of Uroscopy in the Islamic World and its interaction with the Byzantine and Latin Uroscopy. Athanasios Diamandopoulos (Greece)
- History of surgical sutures. Driss Cherif (Tunisia)
- Heart dissection from Galen to Ibn Al Nafiss. Jamal Mehssani (Morocco)
- The teaching of surgery in the first European medieval universities: place of Arab-Muslim authors in the curriculum. Jean-François Tessier (France)

11h00–11h30: Tea break

11h30–13h00: Session II : History of surgery in Muslim heritage: state of the art

- Principles of Arab surgery. Abdelaziz Allabadi (Jordan)
- The epic of the history of surgical instruments. Moncef Sfar Gandoura (Tunisia)
- Period Surgical instruments of the Ottoman. Nil Sari (Turkey)
- Surgery during the 14th century through the Manuscript “ Kitāb Al Istiqsā “ by Mohamed Al-Shafra Al-Qirbiliāni. Fouad Laboudi (Morocco)
- On wounds in the head in “Kitāb al-‘Umdafī Şinā‘a al-Jirāḥa by Ibn al-Quff”. A study. Ahmet Aciduman (Turkey)

13h00–13h30 : Conference : From Salerno’s Minerva Garden to the illuminated Herbarium of CircaInstans: a path with no boundaries. Paola Capone (Italy)

13h30–14h00: Visit of the Botanic Garden

14h00–15h00 : Lunch

15h00–16h30 : Session III : History of surgery in Muslim heritage: state of the art (part 2)

- Illustrated pages of Arab surgery. Ahmed Dhieb (Tunisia)
- Veterinary Surgery in Ancient Islamic Arabic Heritage. Adel E. A. Mohamed (Egypt)
- History of pediatric surgery. Driss Chérif (Tunisia)
- History of laparoscopic surgery. El Bachir Benjelloun (Morocco)
- The compartment syndrome between Arab and Western surgery. Hamza Essaddam (Tunisia)
- Effect of Zahrawi in the Great Book of Surgery of the French physician Guy de Chauliac. Imam Shafay Mohamed Hamoudi (Egypt)

16:30–17h00 : Tea Break

17h00–18h30 : Session IV : Surgery in the Arabic manuscripts

- Surgery in the book Attāyssir of IbnZuhr (Avenzoar). Abdelghani Yahyaoui Morocco
- Surgery in the book Alkouliyāt of Ibn Rochd (Averroes). Mohamed Kadiri (Morocco)
- Surgery in the book Attāssrif of Abu Al Qasim Al Zahrawi (Abulcasis). Hamid Lahmar (Morocco)
- Surgery control and inspection in the book Kitāb nihāyat'al-rutbah fiṭalab'al-ḥisbah by Shayrazi. Mohamed E.Gourani (Morocco)
- Neurosurgery in the book Al-Qanunfi't-Tibb of Ibn Sina (Avicenna). Faycal Lakhdar (Morocco)

18h30–19h30 : Official inaugural ceremony

19h30–20h00 : Conference : The presence of Avicenna in Nueva Espana between XVI and XVII century. Carlos Viesca (Mexico) (President of the international society of the history of Medicine).

20h00–21h00 : Visit of Al ANDALOUS exhibition

21h00–22h00 : Tarab Andalusí performed by local Medical students

22h00 : Dinner

Friday, 5th :

08h30–10h30 : Session V : Al Zahraoui (Abulcasis): father of the medieval surgery

- Alzahrawi and his book Al-tasrif. Abdelaziz Allabadi Amman (Jordan)
- Comparison of the Roman dental instruments at the National Museum of Archaeology and the dental instruments of Al-bucasis. Maria do Sameiro Barroso (Portugal)
- Could Al-Zahrawi Be Considered a Biomedical Engineer? Mohamed Nagy Saad Mohamed Elziftawy (Egypt)
- Al Zahraoui (Abulcasis), precursor of aesthetic and reconstructive surgery. MariaBlanca Ramos De Viesca (Mexico)
- A modern practitioner's view of Al-Zahrawi's surgical procedures. Sharif Kaf al-Ghazal (UK)
- A Glance at the Urology of Al-Zahrawi. Abdelhak Khallouk (Morocco)

10h30–11h00 : Tea break

11h00–12h30 :

Conference : Influence of Islamic culture at the dawn of the Padua School of Medicine. Giorgio Zanchin (Italy)

Conference : “Father of Obstetrics and Gynecology”: Egyptian Doctor Naguib Pasha Mahfouz. Beth Baron (USA)

Conference : FIMA year book 2016. Musa Mohd Nordin (Malaysia)

13h30–14h15 : (Break: Friday prayer)

14h30 : Lunch

15h30 : Visit of the Old Medina of Fez

Saturday, 6th:

(Historical conference auditorium Al Batha/ Old city of Fez) :

08h30–09h00 : Conference : Doubt and Epistemological Modesty in Medieval Arab-Islamic Medicine: Contextualising al-Razi, al-Farabi, Ibn-Sina and al-Ruhawi. Haris Haseeb (Scotland)

09h00–11h00 : Session VI

FSTC session : 1001Cures : Medicine and Healthcare from Muslim Civilization.

- 1001 Cures initiative. Mohamed M. El-Gomati (UK)
- Professor Rabie Abdel Halim’s contribution : 1001 Cures : Surgery from Muslim Civilisation. Mostafa Abdel-Halim (UK)
- Enriching the Teaching of Biology/Physiology. Anne-Maria Brennan (UK)
- Hospital Complex Developments in the Seljuk and Ottoman periods. Kemal Aydin (Turkey)
- FSTC Timeline of Medicine and Healthcare. Nasser Kurdy (UK)
- An analysis of the works of Ibn Tofayl and Ibn al-Nafis. Zohor Idrissi (UK)

11h00–11h30 : Tea break

11h30–13h30 : Session VII: History of surgery in Morocco

- Some aspects of the natural treatments accompanying surgery in the Moroccan-Andalusian medical heritage. Jamal Bammi (Morocco)
- Surgery within the medical system in Morocco. Z.A Al Houssaini (Morocco)
- Surgery in Pre-colonial Morocco. Fouad Laboudi (Morocco)
- Recognition of orthopedics in Morocco: the path of a fighter. Professor’s Abdellouahed Ismael testimonial book. Abdellouahed Ismael (Morocco)

14h00–15h30 : Lunch at the historical Old Medina of Fez

15h30–18h30 : Visit of the Ancient Weapons Museum

20h30 : Gala Dinner